I'm sure everyone is aware that it is Mother's Day this Sunday.
A day to thank your Mum and show her that she is Special.

I know you will agree with me that ALL Mothers and Grandmothers are – Amazing, loving, selfless, strong, and courageous when it relates to their family.

*And the following quote says it all -
Mothers Are Like Buttons They Hold Everything Together*

*On behalf of Ms Jan's Sewing Ladies'
I would like to pass on their heartfelt thanks to everyone who supported them by attending or sending donations to their Decorate a Bra for Cancer Event.*

The day was a wonderful success and $4,500 was raised for Can Assist and Lillier Lodge.

Once again – Thank You for your support

A mother that is trying to keep up with the times and texting with her child

Child: Got an A in Maths

Mum: WTF, well done!

Child: Mum, what do you think WTF means?

Mum: Well That's Fantastic

Mum: "What does IDK, LY & TTYL mean?"

Child: I don't know, love you, talk to you later

Mum: Ok, I will ask your sister

P & C ASSOCIATION – Mrs Downey asked me to thank who assisted in any way at the “Tuck Shop” which was held at the school on Wednesday. The gifts of food and lollies etc were very much appreciated and a special word of thanks to those ladies who gave their time to serve. They were Mavis Bradley, Barbara Sinclair, Lil Reeves, Lorna Johnston, Beryl Nixon and Beryl McDonald. The tuck shop is, as you are perhaps aware, a monthly affair.

BOWLS – Who says that IC has no influence on people? Sam Ballard and Les Penfold were both taken to task for being late last week, and what do you think happened this week? L.N. was first to arrive on Sunday and Sam was not very far behind. Even Vic Harris made an effort and was only fifteen minutes late, which you must admit is a remarkable feat. There was a small turn up and only two games were played. Vic Harris, Les Penfold and Ned Sommerville gave battle to Fred Armour, Charlie Broben and Reg Penfold for an Opera House Lottery ticket. It was a dour fight but the superior wicking qualities of Ned’s team proved too much for the more orthodox players. In case you don’t know it Boys. You can get a ticket for 2/6 in Western Australia. The other game was a little one sided. Although the team was originally Googan Cole and Vic Harris to play myself and Sam Ballard, Vic very early in the game decided to play for us and despite Googan’s best efforts he was unable to withstand the onslaught of three other players. The final score was Vic Harris, Jack Mitchell and Sam Ballard 27 against Coogan Cole’s 14. There is a protest on the result. It comes from Coogan who demands to know who the so and so was, that drew him with Vic.....

BROOKS FOR SHOES – There will be a Ladies’ Day at the Quandialla Bowling Club on Tuesday next commencing at 11am. Each year Brook’s Shoe Stores present a pair of shoes for competition. This year the ladies are buying another pair to enable the game to be run as pairs. There will be a green fee of 2/- to help defray the extra cost. I think this yearly gift of Brook’s Stores should be remembered. So, when you think of shoes Think BROOKS of Temora, Wyalong and Grenfell, and if that is not worth a couple of bob off my next pair, the game is not fair.....

Cheers until next week Sue Priestley

😊😊 Have a Wonderful Mother’s Day 😊😊
