FRIDAY NIGHT – Don't forget the gift evening for Judy Causer tonight in the CWA Rooms. This is prior to her marriage to Mr M Caldwell. Everybody is welcome but ladies --- a plate please. SATURDAY NIGHT – It is proposed to hold a bowls day at Caragabal on October 1st which is a Saturday with a social at night. In aid of the Dr Blamey fund. Never fear, Aspro will ease it. Saturday night at Caragabal. Blimey!!!!

BOWLS TESTIMONIAL – The weather could definitely have been better for the weekend bowls testimonial fixture. However, those hardy souls who braved the elements for the sake of the game and the object for which it was, had a wonderful time. On the Saturday, "Tinny" McAlister (that's Jim of course) beat his poor unfortunate brother for the trophy. There were six other blokes had something to do with it too but for the life of me I can't remember who they were. On the Sunday with 96 players participating, the honours went to a team from Cootamundra led by D Orgill. A spider was also held and lo and behold if this Orgill bloke don't win that too. It was certainly his day to howl. Ken Howard the racing commentator has a little black book in which he enters names for future reference. I've got one too to record the names of bowlers who at some time I must deal with rather severely. The first name in the book is that of James New Esq. What he did to our team on Sunday was nobody's business, the cad. The total proceeds for the Dr Blamey Bowls Club Testimonial is in the region of £200. Willingly given by the members and willingly donated by the Club. So, get well Doc, and if I may misquote one famous lady "Come up and see us sometime"

Last weekend John and I had the pleasure of joining our family in Sydney to celebrate Donovan's 40th birthday. It was going to be weekend of lots of eating and drinking and it did not disappoint. We left for Sydney on Saturday morning and met everyone for lunch at 'Nomad's Wine Bar' in the back streets of Surry Hills. It was a place where you make a selection and share. We enjoyed zucchini flowers, kingfish ceviche, duck liver parfait, baby octopus, pork fat potatoes, wagyu tartare all prepared a special way by their chef. After a little shopping, we moved onto the main venue for the weekend. 'Momofuku Seiobo' at Star City Casino where we enjoyed a 12 course Degustation Meal consisting of, Course 1. Bakes, abalone, lardo 2. Military snail, escabeche, plantain 3. Short rib, onion 4. Zucchini, pumpkin, hot sauce 5. Curried crab, rice 6. Busted roti, onion, muntzie 7. Marron, young coconut, koji butter 8. Avocado, salt cod, cassava 9. Pork with crackle, pumpkin & salad 10. Yoghurt, banana leaf 11. Coconut, cashew 12. Rum cake, marzipan, raisin, tamarind jelly, black b*. Then the birthday boy received a birthday cake, banana and chocolate ganache which we all shared. All meals were paired with a selection of wines. Late breakfast/brunch was enjoyed at Butcher/and the/Farmer restaurant at the Tramsheds, Harold Park where they served the usual breakfast fare but in a very up market way. I can honestly say I have never eaten 90% of the food I tried during the weekend. I enjoyed most, some like the snails will never pass my lips again but it certainly was an experience, one that the whole family enjoyed. They say you should try new things and that's certainly what we did!!!!!!!!!!!!

Cheers Sue Priestley
