IDLE CHATTER IS A LITTLE EARLY THIS WEEK

Must be a holiday on Friday!!!!

Due to Easter and commitments in the Priestley household, I.C. 288 has been printed early and distributed on Wednesday, just remember tomorrow is Thursday not Saturday.

Belated Congratulations - 70th Wedding Anniversary

In 1948 Clive Hazell married Beryl Grinly, and on Wednesday 7th February this year they celebrated their 70th Wedding Anniversary.

In 1948 Clive and Beryl made their home in Griffith where Clive worked for the railway and started their family. In 1954 Clive, Beryl and 2 children Cheryl and Garry arrived in Quandialla after purchasing the general store from the Olsen Family (today this building is the Quandialla Post Office). They soon settled in and Clive ran a very successful store and sold everything for the home and property.

Beryl and Clive were blessed with another 4 children Carmel, Rodney, Alison and Debbie. They went on to buy a property on the Bimbi Rd called "Greenwood" and eventually sold the store in the early 60's. They leased their farm in the late 70's and moved to Canberra for their younger children, then returned to the farm in the early 80's before eventually selling "Greenwood" and moving back to Canberra. Beryl and Clive retired to Coolamon in the early 2000's where they still reside.

On behalf of Idle Chatter Readers and all your friends in Quandialla including John and myself I would like to pass on our belated Best Wishes to you both on reaching this wonderful milestone.
