ANZAC SERVICES

Perfect weather on Monday was enjoyed by everyone who attended their village Anzac Service.

In Quandialla school children proudly marched down Second Street to the Soldiers Memorial Hall for the commencement of the Anzac Service with Robert Reeves and Ken McAlister overseeing proceedings. At the completion of the reading of the fallen everyone made their way to the cenotaph for the laying of the wreaths and the last post. Thanks go to Brady Pudya for assisting Robert and Ken with organising the music for the service.

QUANDIALLA CWA BRANCH

The Quandialla CWA Ladies hosted a free Morning Tea for the community prior to and after the Anzac Service, which was very much appreciated by the locals. Earlier the Branch Members had held a couple of working bees at the Rest Rooms tidying up and also sprucing up with some paint for the occasion. Congratulations Ladies, the offer of a cuppa was a great idea, and you had the Rest Rooms looking its best.

HOW TIME IS FLYING PAST

We have just enjoyed Easter, commemorated Anzac Day, Mother's Day is just around the corner, and of course I am looking forward to that. Next the long weekend in June will be here before we know it. THEN it will be my birthday in July (just put that in to remind my hubby 😊😊). From then on, as my mother used to say, "you only have to turn around twice and it will be" whatever, and today I am saying, Christmas!!!!!!

I know you don't want to hear about it as it is a bit too early, but as I am a little bit handicapped at present I'm going to my happy place and working on my Christmas Yard Plan and House Display as this year we will be hosting the whole family for Christmas and of course I want it to be perfect for Stella and Macy.

THANK YOU

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who wished me well after hearing about my mishap last week. I have received good news, no operation necessary as my break has already started to mend. Will be in a sling for 6 – 8 weeks and according to the number of young doctors I have seen it could take up to 6 months to hopefully get the full use of my left arm back. But that will also depend of course on my age and how well I heal. All good news but I'm extremely sick to death of having my age supposedly dictate how well I am going to bounce back.

This little black duck will be working very hard to prove them wrong!!!!

IT'S FINALLY HAPPENED – it is now 8.15pm Thursday night.

I cannot fill this weeks' newsletter.

So, I will bow my head in defeat and leave the back page empty for the first time in 9 ½ years.

Hopefully my mo-jo will be back on track next week.

30 minutes later – I have decided I can't do it

PRIESTLEY HOUSEHOLD ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Squint your eyes and imagine the lady with a sling on her left arm and holding the wine bottle in her right hand, leaving the cooking to the other half.
