WHERE HAS THIS YEAR GONE?

It will not be long now, and I will be celebrating my birthday in July which means it is only a hop skip and a jump till Christmas, my favourite time of the year.

When I saw the current Christmas countdown – I just had to include it for your enjoyment.

Ok, maybe not everyone cares, and I can hear the groaning from those who do not want to see this, but I cannot help myself because I admit it.....

I am a Christmas Tragic and PROUD of it.

But seriously, back to the question – Where has this year gone? We all looked forward to the New Year and celebrated the end of 2020, all hoping that 2021 was going to be a better year for all. Unfortunately, COVID is still with us and possibly will be a part of our lives for quite a while, but I do feel extremely lucky to be living in Australia where we seem to be handling COVID much better than other countries across the world.

Back to the question of time. They do say time flies when you are having fun, and I can agree with that, but I also feel it is flying past much quicker for me now that I have joined the ranks of a senior citizen, as it now takes me twice as long to do certain jobs. But as my good ol' Mum always said, “you only have to turn around twice and you have aged 10 years”, now I know what she meant.

Did you know??

The Bland Hotel has a range of Super Charge Automotive Batteries.
Call in and see Dan for prices etc.
