If I've learned
anything in my 23
years on earth, it's that it's okay to lie
about your age.

However, if I make 90 plus years of age, I will be letting everyone know about it

I am very pleased to report we have a very young at heart lady living in Quandialla who will be Celebrating her 94th birthday with family on Sunday 1st March.

2020 PENNANT

😊😊 Now that I've had my fun 😊😊

It's "that" time of year again, when the man of the house goes missing each Sunday afternoon, but comes home eventually, sometimes with a smile, sometimes not.

Yes! Pennant season begins on Sunday 1st March for our Quandialla Bowlers with the memories of past glory and the reality of last years disappointments driving the poor old fellas on for another year. 5 weeks, 6 if they make the final, will see them playing sides from Boorowa, Cootamundra, Harden and Young in the battle for the No: 5 Pennant.

I'm sure all our readers wish them luck. Watch this space.....

DON'T FORGET

BLAND HOTEL – 6.30 – 8.30pm
Every Monday Night – $15 Schnitzel & Steak Night
and
Every Wednesday Night - Pizza Night

It's Time to Waffle as I Need to Fill the Rest of this Page!
And as luck has it - I even know what I want to rant, I mean waffle about.
This week has been a testing week with new technology.

I PUT THE THINGAMABOB INSIDE
THE WHATCHAMACALLIT, TURNED THE DOOHICKEY AND THE WUTEVERITIS STILL DOESN'T WORK.
ANY IDEAS?

The above little piece of wisdom is how most of my work-related memos on upgrades etc might as well read. I wonder if the little blighters who write these memos actually get a degree before they can tackle the job or just go for broke. However, they seem to lose something in translation especially when they use abbreviations and acronyms, that I have no idea what they mean.

I eventually work most of them out, with a little common sense and some with a lot of trial and error. But what does my head in, is when you receive another memo saying there was a typo, please leave step 3 out or include a new step and it should work.

Why do they make it so hard for old people like me? If I'm shown how to do it, I can pick it up quickly, but these blasted memos might as well be in a foreign language.

Unfortunately, my problems with new technology will continue but I do feel a little better after my little rant, I mean waffle.

Do you need help with GARDENING, RUBBISH REMOVAL ETC.
