QUANDIALLA SOLDIERS MEMORIAL HALL SCOTS DEBUTANTE BALL

at the Quandialla Soldiers Memorial Hall

Debs to be presented at 8.00 pm

Tickets: $30 per Adult & $10 per Child

Tickets will be available at the Door which will be opened at 7pm

Band: “The Young Ones”

Dress: Semi Formal – BYOG & Basket Supper

Please Note: Admission is by ticket only – there will be no viewing.

Hope to see you there.....

Unable to attend because you are babysitting, have a prior engagement or balls are just not your scene, I understand, but your absence will be missed.

However, as this is our major fundraiser for the Hall I am not averse to some begging. We need to make a considerable profit from this event to help pay the Hall Insurances for the year and if we are lucky we are hoping to have some left over to go towards the floor maintenance.

This is where the begging starts: unable to attend?

A small donation for the Hall from you will be greatly appreciated and will certainly help the Hall Committee to complete the very long maintenance list we have.

SPECIAL NOTICE:

For the 2018 Scots Ball our Debutantes will be presented at 8.00pm

For this year only, our Debutante Party will be entering from the ramp side of the Hall. Which means we need all family and friends that wish to watch the Presentation to be in the Hall before 8.00pm. The Hall Committee will endeavour to keep admittance running smoothly but for that to happen please DO NOT leave your arrival time to the last minute, resulting in you standing outside while the presentation begins.

Colin was born and raised in Quandialla, married local lass Maureen (nee Rae) and raised their family here. Colin has recently had a few bumps in the road with his health but will be celebrating his 90th Birthday with family and friends on Saturday 30th April.

On behalf of I.C. Readers I would like to wish Colin all the best and many happy returns on turning 90 years young.

BABY CONGRATULATIONS: Congratulations go to Nikki Emmett and Peter Daley of Quandialla on the safe arrival of their third child. Audrey Alexis is the name chosen for their beautiful daughter, a baby sister for Isabella and Justin.

TAI CHI for HEALTH at QUANDIALLA

Tai Chi commenced at Quandialla Community Health Centre on Thursday 19th April, with 8 participants. IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO JOIN THE CLASS.

THURSDAYS AT 9.00am

Tai Chi is a form of martial arts. Dr Paul Lam has designed a gentle form of tai chi based on the Sun style which is easy to learn, effective and safe. It is designed to help people manage arthritis and is suitable for people of all ages. It improves flexibility, muscle strength and balance, thereby preventing falls. It also helps with relaxation, aligns posture, increases heart/lung activity and integrates the mind and body.

Tai Chi can be done in your own home and can be done seated if you are not feeling particularly well.

Please wear comfortable clothes and flat enclosed shoes in which to exercise. For more information contact Helen Denovan on 63491777.

CANCER COUNCIL QUILT RAFFLE

Hosted by the Quandialla Soldiers Memorial Hall

Last week I advertised that we would be selling tickets for this beautiful quilt at the Ball.

There has been a change of plans – We will not be selling tickets at the Ball.

We felt we were putting too much pressure on volunteers who man the door to sell raffle tickets while trying to get patrons for the ball through the door in time for the presentation.

Sorry for any inconvenience – I will advertise this wonderful raffle at a later date.

Do you need help with GARDENING, RUBBISH REMOVAL ETC.

SUNDAY ARVO – WHAT TO DO?

Bacon & Eggs for brekky, the tip run and a couple of other jobs before lunch and here it is again – Sunday Afternoon and again just like that it's gone!

The Bowling Club Can Help. On the first Sunday arvo of each month the club is having "Bowls for Everyone." Mum & Dad & the Kids or just Mum and/or Dad, anyone & everyone is welcome to come along at 1.30pm on the 6th May for an afternoon on the green.

Nothing too serious, just a game of bowls and a get together. Bowls can be supplied, wear your civvies but flat sole shoes are a must. Maybe you have never played but would like to give it a go. This is the perfect opportunity.

The club is a great asset for our community and while its facilities are there for everyone to enjoy, they are sadly under-utilised.

So, come along and be a part of it all, you never know you just might enjoy yourself.

THANK YOU to all who helped with the Hall clean-up ready for ANZAC Day and the Ball. Your help was very much appreciated. Should I mention now – that we will be cleaning the Hall again after the Ball on Sunday morning 29th April starting at 9.30am.

If you can assist we would be most thankful. Cheers - Sue Priestley
